Cold Mountain is a fantasy roleplaying adventure set in the rugged interior of the world map known as "The Shores of Twilight." In Cold Mountain, the world has been turned upside down, and the day and night have been frozen in time, leaving only an eerie twilight and what remains of ancient magic. This adventure is intended for characters starting at 4th level, and features monsters at CR 4-6, a new location, three new creatures and non-player characters, player options, a new magic system, and a different magic item and equipment creation system from the Pathfinder Roleplaying Game. Please note that for the Pathfinder Roleplaying Game, conversions of published adventures will be available in the future as rewards for backers on Kickstarter.com and through the LGN and LGP funding options on DriveThruRPG.com. I am so in love with this line of products from Legendary Games. The art is gorgeous, the books are well written, and the gameplay is amazing. Whether you are a casual player or a hardcore RPG gamer, you will find something in the Legendary Games line that you will find interesting and worth playing. This game is excellent. I have played several of the other products in the series and this is by far the best. While I was not overly thrilled with the first starter adventure (the hedge troll/u-brew fable), this is a much higher production value product. The title adventure is inspired and features multiple epilogues which make it a reasonably long campaign. There are multiple classes for the PCs to choose from, and should be a strong motivator for PCs to go out of their way to bring in other classes to the campaign. The classes are interesting, with a bit of flavor, and should appeal to a wide range of groups. The adventure organizes its encounters into multiple level groups, and is very well laid out, with battlemaps that make it easy to track the progress of the characters, and other maps that allow PCs to gain additional insight into the adventure. The information given on the maps and adventure are completely open, without art or spoilers. There are several interesting twists to the encounter and class choices, and the GM will not have to stick to the basic tasks listed for each encounter. The artwork is especially stellar, and adds to the game. There are a few minor issues with the content. The group breakdown by levels seems a bit odd. Given the size of the maps, it would be more efficient to have the monsters and information on

What's new in Life Simulator:

In case you had any doubt surrounding Valentine's Day 21st, the date has been revealed - it's tomorrow! As we've already said, there will be a detailed guide to all of the science fair goodies available and the location of the 'Robosugar', or robot. Happy Valentine's Day and thank you to all our community members for all of their valued input! Happy Friday EveCraftsters! Whether you're celebrating Father's Day, Mother's Day, or Un-Valentine's Day, we hope you are having a wonderful week! In the coming days, we'll be adding new things to our Snapchat Discover page, a sneak peak of what will be in store for next weekend, and an entire list of all the new events! At Sparkcarnival, we have plans for a few exciting things. 1) New events!! 2) New gives and more reasons to geocache! 3) Mobile Giveaway Round-Up Ending Soon! 4) A new sponsors All the coolest events of the Sparkcarnival will be highlighted in our brand new monthly roundups. You can select a few of your favorites from amongst each of our roundups to learn all about the events, what special gives you are eligible to receive, and exclusive perks. It's a little sneak peak of what's to come and we hope you'll enjoy it! We'll also have a special give for a few lucky Spotlight. Our next Spotlight will conclude tomorrow. The Drive For Cardio There is no shortage of events happening this weekend. This weekend, we suggest adding in a bit of cardio to your routine. As the temperatures are mild, you can start at the gym, or take a hike or bike ride on the trails. If you opt for indoor exercise, think about mixing in some floor exercises (zumba, dance, etc.), to your existing routine. If you'd like to burn a bit more calories, check out one of the free events on youtube, like this one, or this one, or this one. You'll find one of the best cardio programs around that only takes a minute or two to complete! Some Upcoming Events And Giveaways You might not want to know too much about next weekend's events, but we wanted to let
